TONTOQUONIAN

"COME GATHER ROUND PEOPLE WHEREVER YOU ROAM
AND ADMIT THAT THE WATERS AROUND YOU HAVE GROWN
AND ACCEPT IT THAT SOON YOU'LL BE DRENCHED TO THE BONE
IF YOUR TIME TO YOU IS WORTH SAVING
THEN YOU BETTER START SWIMMING OR YOU'LL SINK LIKE A STONE
FOR THE TIMES THEY ARE A-CHANGING."

MAURICE F. SMITH, SUPERINTENDENT
ANNA V. JACOBS, ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

To the Members of the Class of 1966:

In a sense, your Senior year as students at Saugus High School is my Freshman year as Superintendent of Schools in the Town of Saugus. It is quite possible, therefore, that I should be accepting advice from you (for who does not recognize the superior wisdom of a Senior) rather than my expressing solemnly sage remarks as to how you might best cope with the problems of the future.

I, personally, have sincere confidence in the ability of today's youth to adjust to the complexities of modern society and, so, I shall limit my remarks, here, to a simple expression of good fortune to all.

It is my earnest hope that the administrators and staff at Saugus High School have succeeded in challenging each of you, as individuals, to the degree that you are beginning to examine your own particular potential talents and will utilize to the fullest your own personal abilities whether you are to enter some kind of higher education or to immediately face the problems of life.

As Superintendent of Schools in Saugus, it seems a little bit more special to be wishing success to the members of the first class to graduate during my tenure of office and I do so with pride in your past accomplishments and anticipation of success in your future achievements.

Sincerely,

MAURICE F. SMITH — Superintendent of Schools

To the Members of the Class of 1966:

My association with your class, as you know, has extended over a six-year period. While you were in junior high school I was your principal; then in 1962, when you entered high school, I moved along with you.

It has been my privilege, accordingly, to observe your maturing during that full span of years that links childhood to young manhood and young womanhood. To me has been afforded the opportunity to witness your development physically, socially, and mentally, to follow your athletic attainments, to measure with pride your scholastic progress.

Now you are graduating. You are abandoning a relatively sheltered and guided existence for that period of life that offers greater independence and heavier responsibilities. You are emerging into a world that demands more than ever before a thorough preparation to insure economic security for the individual and requires an ever wiser understanding of the many issues, both foreign and domestic, that face our increasingly complex society.

As a class you have often excelled. My observations of your progress during the last six years give me assurance that you will meet your challenges squarely and that you will attain success.

To each of you, best wishes as you enter the ranks of the alumni of Saugus High School.

Most sincerely,

Ashton F. Davis

The Worldly Hope men
set their Hearts upon
Turns ashes-
or it prospers; and anon,
Like snow upon the
Desert's dusty Face
Lighting a little Hour or two- and is gone

The Moving Finger writes;
and, having writ,
Moves on: nor all your
Piety nor Wit,
Shall lure it back
to cancel half a Line,
Nor all your tears
Wash out a word of it.

ALMA MATER

O praises sing to red and white,
And let our banner fly.
For we are proud and we are true,
As we hail Saugus High.
O marching ever onward,
We shall forever see
How great the lesson we have learned,
How firm that loyalty
That bids us raise a cheer today
O Saugus High for thee!

Your walls are made of brick and stone
Perhaps, in time will fall,
But lasting friendships formed within
Shall tower over all,
Shall ever be a monument
To trust and brotherhood,
Shall stand forever for the right
Forever for the good.
And so we sing this song today
O Saugus High to thee!

In Memoriam—
Lorne MacOrquodale

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me.
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark.
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

Before you accept that first job . . .

Look over your employer as carefully as he does you

What's the Company like anyway? Would I be proud to work there? Reputation for square dealing with employees? Pleasant surroundings?

Will I be working with others my own age? Are they friendly? Do they socialize after hours?

Will the boss be reasonable? Appreciate good, hard work, but won't explode if I make a mistake?

Will I make a decent week's pay? Have a chance for raises, advancement, more responsibility? How about fringe benefits?

Is the work challenging? I had what it takes to get through high school. Will they give me a chance to use my brains?

Note: Many young men and women in this area can answer "Yes" to these questions. They work for New England Telephone Company . . . New England's largest employer.

Why not talk with our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

We, the editors of the 1966 Tontoquonian would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to many individuals who have assisted us with the annual this year: our staff, Mr. Bill Rowan of Balfour Company, Mr. Guy Quartarone and Mr. Peter Aiello, the photographers from Lincoln Studios, Edward Lane, a member of the junior class, who assisted the senior photographers, the members of the faculty, and the student body. Last but not least we would like to thank Miss Helen F. Towle for her guidance, patience, kindness, and understanding while we were working on the annual. The 1966 Tontoquonian holds the memory of many wonderful experiences for us. We hope that it contains some wonderful memories for you, too, and to those people who have made this yearbook possible we offer our sincere "thanks."
